

Hats off to Seuss!! It's Read Across America Week!!

You could not, would not, want to miss a celebration such as this!!
February 27-March 2

Each day this week we will celebrate with:

**Hats for Sale** Ted Geisel (Dr. Seuss) had an extensive hat collection to give him ideas as he wrote. In honor of him, "Cat in the Hat" hats will be sold at lunch all week long (or until they are gone), for $6.00 each.

**Decorated classroom doors and bulletin boards** Decorated doors and bulletin boards will be on display to show off classroom spirit in celebrating the love of reading.

**Cat in the Hat will be visiting** Cat in the Hat will be stopping by throughout the week to visit the children.

**Highland High School football and soccer teams will be visiting on Thursday to read their favorite Dr. Seuss book to us.

**Special Guest Readers will be coming to Greenfield to share their favorite stories.

Special Events to Remember

Monday: Celebrate Dr. Seuss's book HOP ON POP and have an otter "POP" at lunch.

Tuesday: Green Eggs and Ham day! Wear Green today!

Wednesday: Celebrate WACKY WEDNESDAY! Wear something "wacky."

(example: backwards shirt, mismatch socks, wacky hair etc..)

Thursday: 1 team, 2 teams, Red team, Blue team. This one has the #1...wearing "jerseys" is a lot of fun!! Wear your favorite team jersey and look for special readers from Highland High School.

Friday: The Cat in the Hat Day. Wear your Cat in the Hat hat or any other crazy hat. Guest readers will be visiting throughout the day and sharing their favorite stories.
